

How do Students Share Their Storyboards With Me?

Student accounts must be linked with the teacher's account in order for their storyboards to be viewable by the teacher in the educational edition.

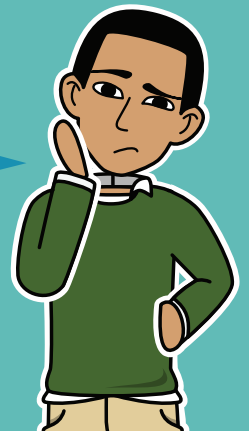

STORYBOARDS ARE SORTED:

- 1) By Class
- 2) By User
- 3) By Assignment

Storyboards will be listed in a menu on the left side.

They can also be selected from a drop down menu above the currently displayed storyboard.

I don't have a trial and my students created their own accounts, now what?

- 1) Teachers can sign up for the trial, and students can enter the classroom with the Invite Students information.
 - a. Their accounts will now be linked up, and storyboards can be viewed by user.
- 2) Students can email links to their public storyboard or download it as an image.
